Staff Attorney Bevins-Sullivan and Restitution/Collections Officer Barrie are in attendance at the NACVCB's national conference in Alexandria, VA and are learning lots of good information that will help benefit the Board's activities in the future.

The Board engaged in policy discussions on four topics: potential compensation for emotional support/therapy animals, bereavement pay in homicide cases, whether estates should be used as collateral source offsets, and whether the Board should award claims and then assert its subrogation rights in civil cases. After deliberations, the Board tabled a vote on whether to adopt these policies and instructed the attorneys to draft preliminary policies for review at the Board's meeting in August 2022.
